

STATE OF NEBRASKA

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The American Flag is our Nation's one great unifying symbol; and

WHEREAS, The American Flag, during these challenging times of National uncertainty has once again, as it has for over two centuries, brought comfort to our nation; and

WHEREAS, The American Flag has draped the bodies of fallen Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines, loved ones, steadying the hearts of those who tremble and mourn; and

WHEREAS, The American Flag has been clutched by the tender hands of our youngest citizens and by the hardened, calloused hands of our oldest, both receiving reassurance and resolve in troubled times; and

WHEREAS, It is our love for the American Flag that we recognize today, it is our visible bond that binds our heart to our country, our pride in our past, and the eternal hope, which is our future as Americans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dave Heineman, Governor of the State of Nebraska, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM the 14th day of June, 2007 as in Nebraska, and I do hereby urge all citizens to reflect on the great meaning the American Flag holds for each of us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and cause the Great Seal of the State of Nebraska to be affixed this Fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand Seven.

Attest:

Secretary of State

Governor
